

Frequently Asked Questions

Fork Lift Trucks Training for Participants

How much will the training cost?

Training fees will vary. Call our Customer Services Department for more detail telephone 905 672 3600.

How long will the training take?

Training times vary pending on training program.

Is the Training Qualified

Yes our training programs meet and exceed the Provincial, Federal Regulations and or CSA Standards.

Training for the Corporation

Training Programs custom written for client meet clients Health and Safety Policy as per their request.

WHMIS Training Your H&S Policy should state when WHMIS retraining is required.

Best practice WHMIS retraining takes place every 12 – 24 months but never exceeds 36 months.

First Aid Training is a WSIB requirement please refer to Reg. 1101 to learn more about your firms First Aid requirement.

Transportation Dangerous Goods Clear Language

Training is required for all who handled or transport Dangerous Goods, Retraining is required every 36 months.

Fork Lift Trucks The new standard is CSA B335-4 there are new training requirement such as

NEW MID TERM Training every 18 month

Up Grade Training is now a requirement, a 4 hour train program should be relevant to the workplace when moving an employee to another department.

Employers Training Requirements

Employers: it is your responsibility to provide training for your employees

Employers: take every precaution reasonable in the circumstance for the protection of the a worker
Sec 25.(2) (h).

Employers should read OHS Act Sec: 25 Duties of Employers

Safety First Training & Support Services offers many services call us more information 905 672 3600

Audit Services	Transportation	Workplace	On Line Career Safety Training	Management Support Services
Safety Training	Construction	Industrial	Medical	Fit Testing
Safety Supplies	Hard Hats	Fall Protection	Log Books NCR	Safety Training Programs

SFT provides training 24 \7 at your facility or at our Training Center regardless where you are located